If you are selected for an interview, one of our outreach workers will contact you and set up a time to call you and discuss:

- why you want to be part of this project
- the conditions of membership in STR8 UP
- what your goals are

STR8 UP – 10,000 Little Steps to Healing Inc.

COMMUNITY INTERVENTION MODEL

STR8 UP offers programs for individuals who want to exit gang life, engage in educational and/or employment training and reduce negative contacts with the criminal justice system.

RELENTLESS OUTREACH

4-6 months

INDIVIDUALIZED SUPPORT

- You will have a dedicated outreach worker to support you during the project.
- Your worker will help coordinate government and community services to meet your needs and help you achieve your work and education goals.
- Once we get to know you and if you are ready for the next steps you may be one of 57 individuals selected for more intensive programming.

TRANSFORMATION

1-2 years

INTERNAL & COMMUNITY RESOURCES

- Indigenous Cultural Teachings and access to Elders and cultural workers.
- 16 months of Internal Programming based on the Medicine Wheel & STR8 UP Philosophy designed to help you succeed in achieving your goals for education and employment.
- Engaged community agencies throughout central and northern Saskatchewan.
- Contact/Support from existing programs and resources to help you pursue your individual plan.
- Continual Outreach Services.

SUPPORT & SUSTAINMENT

1-2 years

ONGOING SUPPORT

- STR8 UP believes that everyone's journey is unique and we continue to support our members after they've moved through the initial phases of their healing.
- Once you join STR8 UP you become part of a group of individuals who commit to supporting one another and helping one another succeed in reaching their goals.
- There is no time limit on this kind of support.
